The Setu Story

Crafted by Nature. Defined by Design.

Since 1983, Setu has been transforming nature's finest stones into luxury surfaces for homes, hospitality spaces and architectural projects.

Every slab is carefully selected, precision processed and thoughtfully finished to preserve its natural character while meeting the highest standards of quality.

More than a marble company, Setu is a curator of natural stone, helping architects, designers and homeowners discover materials that inspire meaningful spaces.

The Collections

Crafted by Nature. Defined by Design.

Every Setu collection is thoughtfully curated to celebrate the individuality of natural stone. From ageless marbles and earthy travertines to rare semi-precious stones and architectural elements, each collection is defined by its own material language, crafted to inspire spaces that endure for generations.
